

B. Fill in the Blanks

1. Critical thinking involves analyzing and evaluating information to make _____ decisions.
2. A _____ statement is based on facts and evidence rather than personal opinions.
3. The process of _____ is breaking down complex information into simpler parts.
4. To avoid _____ thinking, one should consider multiple perspectives and avoid jumping to conclusions.
5. Critical thinking skills are essential for _____ problem-solving and decision-making.

B. Multiple Choice Questions

6. Which cognitive ability involves the capacity to store and recall past experiences?
A) Attention
B) Memory
C) Problem-Solving
D) Creativity
7. What cognitive ability helps in focusing on a specific task while ignoring other stimuli?
A) Problem-Solving
B) Logical Reasoning
C) Memory
D) Attention
8. Which cognitive ability involves finding solutions to complex issues?
A) Creativity
B) Memory
C) Logical Reasoning
D) Problem-Solving
9. The ability to think in a structured and rational manner is known as:
A) Creativity
B) Attention
C) Logical Reasoning
D) Memory
10. Which cognitive ability is essential for generating new and original ideas?
A) Problem-Solving
B) Memory
C) Attention
D) Creativity